

Satisfied Customers

"I've used StruxTravel twice in the last few months – how nice to have a travel agent again! Not only did they save me time and money, but they also gave me some great suggestions for tours and activities I could do." – Leslie C.

"We used StruxTravel to plan a very complicated trip around Spain & Portugal. They were so helpful in arranging flights, accommodations, car rentals, and suggesting things we never would have thought of. The thing that earned five stars though was when a lightning storm cancelled a connecting flight – they worked into the night to find alternatives. You don't expect or get that kind of service very often these days." – Darren K.

"Not only was StruxTravel great for pre-planning hotels, rental cars and excursions before traveling, but they were great for last minute changes and additions that we wanted while abroad. We had an idea of what we wanted to do, but StruxTravel was able to offer additional options that were above and beyond what we could have hoped for in price, value and experience. It's great to have an agency like StruxTravel instead of attempting to filter through everything on the web; they did all the hard work so we could enjoy our vacation." – Garrett C.

Q & A

Why choose StruxTravel?

At StruxTravel, you'll enjoy a collaborative planning process with a trained, knowledgeable, and enthusiastic professional.

Is it expensive to use a travel agent?

Using a travel agent is no more expensive than booking a trip on your own. In fact, it's likely we will save you money since we have exclusive access to wholesalers and travel consortia. We base our recommendations on our talks with you, as well as our expert knowledge of the travel industry and your destination.

What can I expect from you?

We'll be your travel advocate – not only while planning and booking your trip, but also during your journey. You could try using an Internet search engine to book a trip on your own, but what happens when something goes wrong? We give you the person-to-person service before, during, and after your trip.
